

HÖGSKOLAN
I HALMSTAD

IN CASE OF EMERGENCY

Contact list for the emergency team

Students and employees at Halmstad University are responsible for reporting accidents, deaths, work injuries etc which can constitute a crisis/emergency for individuals or groups.

If you receive a message that something serious has happened, you should make a note of:

- the time of the call/message
- the name of the person sending the message and their telephone number
- what has happened
- who has been injured/involved in the accident

Call SOS ALARM 112 if you deem it necessary.

After contacting SOS ALARM, also call the University helpline 035-299 10 30.

If the situation is not an emergency, but you are made aware of an accident, a death or other serious incident involving students or staff, contact your immediate head of school/department first of all.
