Examinators kursanalys

Vilka styrkor har kursen?

The course was appreciated for its engaging and clear lectures, with many students highlighting the structure, animations, and connection between theory and assignments. The weekly assignments and the opportunity to apply theory through practical labs (especially Lab 1 and 2) were seen as very helpful. Several students expressed that they found the subject matter exciting and that the course helped them understand fundamental digital design concepts. The lecturer's engagement and clarity were frequently mentioned as one of the strongest aspects of the course.

Vilka svagheter har kursen?

The most frequently raised concerns were related to the coordination between lectures and labs. Some students found that lab assignments were released before the relevant theoretical content had been covered, leading to confusion and additional self-study. Lab 3 was perceived as complex, with new tools, unclear instructions, and high time pressure. There were also reports of inconsistent during lab sessions. Students also noted issues such as incorrect solutions in the provided answer keys and missed opportunities to prepare adequately due to limited access to old exams.

I acknowledge both the positive reception of my lectures and the concerns raised regarding the course structure and coordination. I am grateful that many students found the lectures clear, engaging, and relevant to the course objectives. It is encouraging to see that the effort put into making the theoretical content accessible and structured was appreciated. I appreciate the constructive feedback and will incorporate these improvements to enhance the learning experience in future course offerings.
