Other comments

Based on overall personal course analysis as course responsible, my aim for the next year is:

- Work more on the aim and structure of the videos, or decide whether they should still be included.
 - Check with other teachers if we can replace Stahl's book by some other material.
 - Incorporate even more time for students to develop their final exam essays throughout the course. I saw a lot of benefit with supervision sessions.
 - Discuss with teachers if the online discussion should be made mandatory
