Examiner's course analysis

Based on the course evaluation result - which are the strengths of the course?

The strengths are the satisfaction among students, as well as the course design.

Based on the course evaluation result - which are the weaknesses of the course?

No weaknesses reported, but students suggest more interactive lectures and more of comparative statistical analyses.

Comments about the collaboration with the course ambassadors

The course ambassadors have been part of the final evaluation of the course. They emphasize on the importance of being present at introduction and lectures. They also comment on the accessibility of course literature provided by the library, it turned out that one of the books was difficult to access.

Conclusion and suggestions for course development or already made decisions

There were few respondents behind the evaluation and the results must therefore be interpreted with caution. Suggestions for next course are to increase interactive lectures and workshops and more focus on comparative statistical analyses from a cross-cultural perspective.
