Examinators kursanalys

Vilka styrkor har kursen?

Students particularly appreciated the first two lab assignments, the exercise sessions, and the quality of the textbook. The social study environment received the highest satisfaction rating among other categories, indicating that students found value in collaborative learning opportunities. The bonus points system was viewed positively in concept, even though its implementation faced criticism, and students valued the practical, hands-on nature of the assignments.

Vilka svagheter har kursen?

Even though the ambassador did not mention any problems with the lectures, some students are not happy with the pedagogical quality of the lectures. The ambassador was particularly unhappy with one of the teacher assistants. Furthermore, some students were unhappy with the new bonus point system. Finally, there were complaints regarding the communication between the teacher assistants and the course responsible.

Slutsatser samt eventuella förslag till kursutveckling eller beslut som redan fattats

This year, there were significant changes in the course, and it was expected to some extent to see dissatisfaction. First, a competitive bonus points system was introduced for exercise sessions. Even though some students were satisfied with it, others felt it was counterproductive. Second, teacher assistants took the responsibility of also correcting the lab assignments in oral format for the first time. It is natural that, since it was the first year of making these changes, there were some difficulties in their implementation.

Based on the feedback, a few modifications are underway for next year:

- 1- Mixing the lectures with problem-solving to provide more hands-on sessions
- 2- Reduce or eliminate the bonus point system to reduce stress in students.
- 3- Better communication with teacher assistants regarding their duties and how to implement them
- 4- It has already been requested to introduce supplementary instructions (SI) sessions for the course. A previous student has already shown interest in becoming an SI leader.
