The course pace was considered a strength by the participants.

Based on the course evaluation result - which are the weaknesses of the course?

The customization of the course addressed the diverse expectations of the participants.

Comments about the collaboration with the course ambassadors

We did not formally use the ambassador model because the participants' time was limited. However, we established communication through messages in Blackboard and collected information about the students' perceptions.

Conclusion and suggestions for course development or already made decisions

Clearly define the participants' expectations and allow them to choose a course path that best fits their needs.

Other comments

Three students responded to the survey.

The course is introductory in nature, and its purpose is to provide elements that connect entrepreneurship and sustainability.

The students had different profiles and interests: some were practitioners, while others were PhD or master's students.
